

October 2020

PAINTINGWAR WILD WEST

PaintingWAR is the perfect magazine to learn how to bring your wargame models to life. It is the ultimate painting guide to help any gamer or modeler achieve through simple techniques the results shown in the different illustrations. Thanks to the step-by-step painting guides and with the assistance of a unique color card design, listing the colors used and the manner of their application, wargamers will learn the different techniques used to obtain amazing results in their painted miniatures.

Each issue of PaintingWAR magazine focuses on the work of a specific painter so that the different issues showcase a great variety of painting styles, giving the reader the chance to master the technique which is best suited to his or her own style.

The issues of PaintingWAR magazine published so far have been focused on historical periods: World War II, the American Civil War, the Wild West and the Dark Ages among others. In each we find a clear, simple and well-illustrated explanation of how to paint the uniforms of the different armies involved in these epic conflicts.

PaintingWAR is the magazine which all wargamers need to learn how to obtain the best results when painting their miniatures through an accessible, visual format.

Art. PAWA-010EN

PaintingWAR Wild West

Whether because of the spectacular canyons, the scorching deserts, the infamous saloons or the sheriff's jail, we all remember the iconic images of the American Wild West.

The tenth edition of PaintingWAR-Wild West is dedicated precisely to this period, immortalized in the western movies of Hollywood. With more than 30 miniatures painted by José Antonio Bustamante, "Busta", the magazine covers how to paint the principal characters of the Frontier.

With the help of step-by-step guides, the author explains how to obtain the best results in a few simple stages, designed to allow you to obtain the best results in a reasonable timeframe and allowing you to quickly deploy your miniatures for battle.

In this issue you will find the most famous western characters: trappers, sheriffs and outlaws, native American such as Apaches or Cherokees, cowboys, animals and even a stagecoach. All these miniatures are painted in stunning detail. Moreover, with the unique painting cards system choosing the right color combinations has never been quicker or more simple.

Number of pages: 74

Format: A4

Language: English

Reference	Product description	Packaging	ISBN
PAWA-010EN	PaintingWAR Wild West	50	978-84-09-22470-8